VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1906.

NO. 60.

GOV. J. C. W. BECKHAM.

He will speak in Stanford on Tuesday afternoon, next, Oct. 16th, at 1:30. You should take advantage of the opportunity to hear him.

HON. HARVEY HELM.

Under a good picture of the gentleman, the Louisville Times prints the following:

The Hon. Harvey Helm, of Stanford, democratic nominee for Congress in the Eighth Kentucky district, is one of the best-known lawyers at the Lincoln county bar. He is admirably equipped to represent the people of the "Proud Old Eighth" in the Federal Congress.

Alexander Champion, a Negro bartender, was shot dead in a saloon at Argenta, Ark., it is alleged by Luther Lindsay, son of the man killed by Negroes last Saturday night. The dead man is said to have made remarks about the Lindsays.

The annual report of the Illinois Central railroad, for the calendar year ending June 30, shows gross receipts from traffic of $51,636,400, and expenses of operation and taxes amounting to $36,437,500, leaving a net income from traffic above the cost of operation and taxes of $15,198,900.

As the result of a joke on his wife, Charles Smith, mayor of the little town of Brooklyn, W. Va., is believed to be dying and Mrs. Smith is also fatally wounded. Smith had a man dressed up as a woman and called him out to the gate. Mrs. Smith maddened by jealousy, shot her husband through the stomach and lung and then shot herself.

President Charles A. Peabody, of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of New York, who was requested by State Commissioner of Insurance Henry R. Prewitt to appear in Frankfort and show reasons for the removal of Col.

Biscoe Hindman, agent for the company in this State, has wired the commissioner that he will be unable to appear before him on Saturday next, the date fixed, and Commissioner Prewitt has set Oct. 16-20 for the hearing. Peabody says he will be on hand then.

Gov. Luke P. Blackburn, whose reputation as a physician and philanthropist is too well known to need further comment, once said "Concentrated Crab Orchard Water is the best aperient known to the medical profession and will cure more diseases than any one remedy I have ever used." Get a bottle of White's Diamond Brand Crab Orchard Water. For sale by all drugists and country stores.

"That was a tender-hearted young lady that stopped and spoke to me after the services to-day," observed the rector. "She seemed to be filled with sympathy for the farmers, for she asked me to pray for rain."

"Who? That Vibbers girl?" asked the rector's wife. "If she isn't the hypocrite! Why, I saw her buying fancy silk hosiery at a bargain sale yesterday. And she wants you to pray for rain!" — Detroit Free Press.

Nothing to Fear.

Mothers need no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious.

This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit.

It has a world-wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For day. And she wants you to pray for rain!" — Detroit Free Press.

Sick Headache Cured.

Sick headache is caused by derangement of the stomach and by indigestion.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets correct these disorders and effect a cure. By taking these tablets as soon as the first indication of the disease appears, the attack may be warded off. Get a free sample and try them. For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

The State Printing Commission met in Lexington, and, while nothing was given out, it is understood sweeping changes may be suggested, even to repealing certain laws governing the matter.

The session of the I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge of Kentucky ended Wednesday at Harrodsburg. Officers were elected and Georgetown was decided upon as the next meeting place.

The Kentucky State Development convention convened in its fifth annual session at Winchester Wednesday with the Hon. William Lindsay as chairman. The session will continue three days. Addresses are being delivered by prominent men from all over the country.

NEWS NOTES.

The "wets" carried Meade county by 100.

Two men were killed and five were injured by the explosion of a threshing machine on a farm near New Richmond, Wis.

Dr. Frank Brouwer is on trial at Toms River, N. J., on the charge of murdering his wife by administering poison and ground glass.

Much legal argument and little actual progress marked the hearing of the Standard Oil case on the second day of the proceedings at Findlay, O.

Allan Parker, defaulting cashier of a national bank at Tullahoma, Tenn., was sentenced to five years in prison in the Federal Court at Nashville.

In Woodford the "wets" have filed a notice of contest before acting County Judge Crutcher, in the absence of Judge Wilhoit, of the election held on the 20th last.

While fighting a fire in the tenement district of Evansville, which caused a damage of $800, four firemen were injured. Capt. James Fitzwilliams was fatally hurt.

Two children of William King died at Munfordsville from eating toadstools, which they thought were mushrooms. The mother and another child were ill but recovered.

Five Ohio bridge companies have surrendered their charters as a result of the ouster suits filed by Attorney General Ellis. All the other companies except one have left the State.

Cotton mill agents in Rhode Island complain of a scarcity of help, and assert that in this respect the increase in wages granted early last summer did not have the beneficial result expected.

Alexander Champion, a Negro bartender, was shot dead in a saloon at Argenta, Ark., it is alleged by Luther Lindsay, son of the man killed by Negroes last Saturday night. The dead man is said to have made remarks about the Lindsays.

HARVEY HELM

of Lincoln county.

TEAT William Randolph Hearst is a catchy speaker no one will deny after reading the following excerpt from one of his speeches in New York City: "I feel sure that I could have been more popular with my fellow newspaper proprietors, if, when invited, I had been willing to enter into trust with them to raise the rates to advertisers and keep down the wages of employees." Just think of the thousands of merchants and working men that will ponder over this statement. The merchants know Mr. Hearst's paper has the circulation and his low advertising rates will catch them; the working men will tumble at once to what he says about good wages.

ALL known Democrats who will be legal voters on the 6th day of November, 1906, and who have registered as Democrats in precincts where registration is required by law, and who shall have first voted in the general election held upon said day for a member of Congress, shall be entitled to vote in said primary. The Executive committee decided not to compel the election offices to propound the question, "Have you voted for the democratic nominee for Congress?" The change will more than likely cause the democratic nominees for Congress to lose some votes.

EXCLUSIVE of the grounds, the new capitol at Harrisburg, Pa., cost $13,000,000. The cost of the capitol at Washington, which covers four acres, was a little over $13,000,000. The cost of the Congressional Library, covering 3½ acres and undoubtedly the finest structure in the country, with all its beautiful adornments (including $585,000 paid for the site), was $6,032,125. There is no comparison between the Pennsylvania building and the other two in beauty and cost. Charges of graft seem to be well founded, and the whole State is rising in arms over the colossal steal.

IN the drawing for positions on the ballot before the sub-committee yesterday at Louisville, Little Miss Virginia Hayes, of that city, drew the names out of the hat as follows: For Governor, N. B. Hays first, S. W. Hager second; Senator, J. C. W. Beckham first, J. B. McCreary second; Attorney General, J. K. Hendrick first, Lillard Carter second; Commissioner of Agriculture, R. C. Crenshaw first, J. W. Newman second; Superintendent, M. O. Winfrey first, E. A. Gullion second.

THERE is nothing so often overestimated as a man's wealth. A case in point is that of Senator Gorman, of Maryland. His wealth was variously estimated at from $3,000,000 to $20,000,000. Coming down to facts, the inventory of his personal estate reaches only $612,406. And now people are greatly surprised, as usual. It generally happens that the richer a man is reputed to be the greater is the exaggeration. There are few exceptions to the rule.

THE friends of Senator McCreary are seemingly giving themselves more concern about the letter one Noel Gaines charges that Percy Haly wrote to Judge Lassing than Gov. Beckham's followers are. The latter are willing to wait and see whether the letter is a forgery or genuine; the former accept it as true as they do the report that the governor is not only a drunkard but unkind and inhuman to his family.

GOV. BECKHAM, who is charged by his political enemies and others with almost every crime save murder, will speak here at 1:30 next Tuesday afternoon, 16th. Come and see if you think the silly charges against him are true. Whether you are for him, it matters not. He is a pleasing speaker and the time will be pleasantly, and perhaps profitably spent.

THOMAS W. LAWSON says nothing barring a miracle can prevent the election of Hearst. So mote it be.

POLITICAL.

Dr. W. C. Black, of Barberville, will be a candidate for Railroad Commissioner.

A decision to complete work on the Panama canal by contract has finally been reached by the commission in charge of the undertaking.

An executive order putting the 1,100 deputy collectors of internal revenue under civil service regulations is expected to be made by Jan. 1.

Senator McCreary, accompanied by a band, arrived this morning, just ahead of the first snow of the season. A big crowd was in town to hear him, says a dispatch from Williamson. One would infer from the dispatch that Mr. McCreary carries music other than chin music during his campaign.

Kinetoscope pictures of William R. Hearst and phonographic reproductions of his speeches are to be sent to rural communities in New York State where Mr. Hearst will be unable to appear in person.

John S. Adair was nominated by the Republicans of the Second Kentucky district as their candidate for Congress, but it is claimed that the name of Paul Moore is the only one which can go on the ballot.

Gen. J. Franklin Bell is to command the American military forces in Cuba. Gen. Funston will leave Saturday with Secretaries Taft and Bacon and the affairs of Cuba will be left in control of Gov. Magoon and Gen. Bell.

Senator J. W. Bailey has made a proposition to the Attorney General of Texas to assist him in representing the State in the matter of prosecuting the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, as a part of the Standard Oil Company.

Senator McCreary said in one of his speeches that if Gov. Beckham was elected to the United States Senate he is so young he would have no one to play with. To which Gov. Beckham responded, if the Senator had played less and worked more he would have a better account to give of his service.

The treat seems to be on the Senator.

AN ODD SHOW.—The famous Brothers Royer Next Door Co., is without a doubt the queerest combination of its kind in America. The piece is odd, the scenery is odd, and the cast includes the most famous clowns in America, such as Lon Moore, Shorty Maynard, Sydney Sheparo, James Royers and Archie Royer. All five have played clown for Walter E. Main, Barnum & Bailey, Ringling Bros., and the great Wallace Show for the past 10 years. They should certainly keep things moving at a lively pace in "Next Door." At Walton's Opera House Tuesday evening next, 18th.

KINGSVILLE.

Mrs. Fount Dishon went to Lexington Sunday to be with her husband, who was cut by one of the Harris boys. C. L. Holmes was here Tuesday. J. Ed Boland, of Burnside, was here this week. Hons. W. S. Burch and J. M. Alverson, of Stanford, were here last week.

Mr. Tom M. Meeks is making a splendid postmaster. He is proving a worthy successor to our efficient and accommodating ex-postmaster, J. L. Johnson. The postoffice will be moved into the Thompson building.

The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Burton is ill. Dr. B. F. Walter, of Lancaster, was here last week. Tusco Waters leaves to-day for Shreveport, La. Miss Maggie Routen has returned to Lexington, having spent the summer with her brother and sisters here.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hart took possession of the hotel Tuesday and will doubtless keep up the reputation of the good little hostelry so long sustained by others. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walter, occupants for the past two years, have moved into the "Pink Cottage" adjoining the hotel.

Morris Walls' new dwelling on the pike is nearing completion. Mrs. Sarah Waters is having a new dwelling erected. Mrs. Margaret Camden will move to Eubanks. Marion Williams and wife will occupy the Camden home here. Mrs. Robin Rigney has been ill but is now thought to be improving.

A wreck occurred in the tunnel early Monday morning. One of the cars of a southbound freight was derailed. There was very little damage but a tremendous blockade followed during the day and the town was literally full of railroad men; the officers and train crews. The hotels and restaurants were overrun.

Kings Mountain is again to have a change in agents. Our present clever station agent, Mr. Jennings, will be succeeded by Manfred Gooch, a brother to Cecil Gooch, who is holding down the tower. The former is at present working nights at the tower, "Pete" Bastin having been sent to Burgin. Still other changes are to be made for the winter.

Dr. C. M. Thompson has lately become the possessor of a handsome hotel at Celina, Ohio. The doctor traded his farm at South Fork and a small tract of land near Kingsville for the hotel as a matter of speculation. He will not leave here but with his brother will continue in the mercantile business and will move into their new building this week. This new store is to be lighted by gasoline. Men from Lexington were here last week putting in a number of lights, which were very soft and brilliant and that part of Kingsville shows up well.

The government crop report shows the condition of corn was 99.1 Oct. 1, last, as compared with a 10-year average of 79.6. The average condition of tobacco was 84.6 as against a five-year average of 80.2.

It is reported that H. C. Thompson has sold the sorrel horse he recently bought from R. M. Jackson to Eastern parties for $1,500. Capt. R. M. Jackson and J. C. Rinehart have bought the interests of other stockholders, and are now the sole owners of the $3,000 German Coach horse.—London Local.

An Awful Cough Cured.

"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with an awful cough. She had spells of coughing, just like one with the whooping cough and some thought she would not get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and got stout and fat," writes Mrs. Ora Bussard, Brubaker, Ill. This remedy is for sale by Stanford Drug Co.

The Sun-day School convention for this magisterial district will be held at Turkey Knob school house Saturday, Oct. 20, instead of Sunday, 21st, as reported.

Miss Lynn Hansford returned from Liberty yesterday. Miss Minnie Hansford and Mrs. Sarah Hatter went to Somerset Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Elliott were here one day last week looking for a location. Uncle Ike Cowan, who has been confined to his room with rheumatism, is much improved. D. A. Thomas is here mingling with his many friends, angling. He and Geo. Alford caught a fine string Monday.

The school election here Saturday was the most interesting one ever held in this district. Heretofore it has been almost impossible to get enough voters to attend to elect a trustee, but this time the question of a tax to extend the present school term brought out nearly every voter in the district.

The anti-taxites worked hard and won out by a majority that precludes all possibility of a contest. Those who favored the tax took their defeat good humbly and no hard feelings were engendered by the contest.
